MARCH/APRIL 2019

Welcome...

to the March/April issue of Huachuca's Choice Magazine.

It must be spring, because we are offering many activities for all to enjoy!

The third week in March, Family and MWR will once again host All Army Boxing at Barnes Field House. See Page 5 for the details on this exciting sporting event.

Then, March 23 and 24, the Cochise College Rodeo returns to Wren Arena, Fort Huachuca. Check the details on Page 4.

April is the Month of the Military Child, and we've planned a spectacular event with a little something for everyone for Saturday, April 6. Check out Page 7.

The Arts & Crafts Center will host "Sip & Create" events in both March and April, at Thunder Mountain Activity Center. See Page 6 of this issue for more information.

Arts & Crafts is also offering an exciting new program starting in March—Make & Take craft classes. Check it out on Page 14.

One of our biggest annual events is the Festival of the Southwest, set for May 3, 4 and 5 at Veterans Memorial Park, Sierra Vista. Highlights include the carnival, vendors, and fantastic free musical entertainment. Go to Page 8 to help make your plans.

Remember, Family and MWR is committed to serving our Soldiers, Families, Retirees and Civilians.

Thank you for your continued support of YOUR Family and MWR Team and Programs. We do appreciate your support.

Director, F&MWR Dennis J. Maruska

Meet Lisa Chestnut, Assistant Business Manager, MWR Arts & Crafts Center

The MWR Arts & Crafts Center is always looking for new ideas for classes and activities, so they can offer a larger selection to improve customer experience– and one way to do that was to add someone to the staff like their new Assistant Business Manager, Lisa Chestnut.

Originally from Eagle River, Wisconsin, Lisa graduated from the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point, with a Masters of Science in Teaching English, and a Bachelor of Arts in English with a minor in Writing

Lisa came to Fort Huachuca from the Netherlands, where she worked at Geilenkirchen NATO Air Base in Germany as Director of the Child Development Center and School-Age Program.

Prior to that, she was an educator at the Army Education Center, then worked in the same capacity with the Air Force.

These positions provided her with a lot of business knowledge and people skills that she hopes to apply at the Arts and Crafts Center.

Since Lisa started at the Arts & Crafts Center Dec. 13, 2018, the staff has been working on renovating the re-sale shop, and bringing in new products that are focused on Fort Huachuca and Arizona. The hope is that these items will be more appealing to today's Soldiers and their families.

The Arts & Crafts Center also has the ability to engrave almost anything, enabling them to meet the needs of the entire community.

Additionally, the Arts & Crafts Center is offering Make & Take Classes, which are somewhat of a spin-off of their successful Sip and Create Classes.

Each month they will provide a 3-hour class featuring a different project. At the end of the class, students will have the completed project available to take home. Check out Page 14 of this issue for more information on the Make & Take classes, or Page 6 for information on Sip & Create.

In fact, Lisa's family isn't exactly new to Fort Huachuca. They were stationed here three times during her and her husband's, LTC Joseph Chestnut, USA, Ret. 27-year Army career. They then chose to come and retire here.

The couple has two grown sons, one of whom is in ROTC in Wisconsin, and the other who is an Army Specialist at Fort Bliss, TX. They also have an 8th grade daughter at home.

In the little spare time she does have, Lisa is an avid reader.

RELOCATION READINESS CLASSES/WORKSHOPS

Hearts Apart/Waiting Families Support Group: 1700-1830, March 19 and April 16. This support group is an outreach program for active duty military families with service members on an unaccompanied tour, extended TDY or field training exercise. Activities will be planned as well as providing info on local community events.

Destination Germany – March 14, 1200-1330;

Destination Korea – April 11, 1200-1330. This briefing for Service and Family Members helps prepare for overseas assignments, will introduce them to their new duty station, and talk about the culture of that country. Service Members are encouraged to sign up for a class, but if time does not allow, or destination is not available, please feel free to schedule a desk-side briefing.

Spouse Newcomer Orientation: 0800 – 1500 at SFRC, March 5, April 2

This Orientation is for Spouses, DoD ID card holders, who are new to Fort Huachuca. Community information will be provided from various organizations and will be a welcome wagon for newly arrived spouses. The morning will be for all and the afternoon will focus on Spouses who are new to the military.

Adult ESL, Conversational English: 1200-1330 at SFRC - March 8, 15, 22 & 29 and April 5, 12, 19 & 26. The ESL program helps students improve their English speaking, listening, reading, writing and grammar skills. This course is designed for the adult learner and will be tailored to student needs.

ALL CLASSES HELD AT SFRC, BUILDING 50010. CALL (520)533-2330 TO RSVP

ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF (AER) Spouse Education Assistance Program

Calling all Students, Spouses and Scholars! Did you know that AER offers two Scholarship Programs?--The Spouses Scholarship and the Dependent Children Scholarship.

As of this year, spouses may now apply for a scholarship year-round. Dependent children applying still need to meet the website deadline. So what are you waiting for? Applications are available on the AER website, at www.aerhq.org.

Click on "Applying for Scholarship." For additional info, call (520) 533-5312.

EFMP CHANGES MEETING DAYS

In an effort to make the Exceptional Family Member Program Support Group available to more Special Needs Families on Fort Huachuca, it is now offered the second Thursday of the month from 1400-1500.

“Pete the Cat: The Great Leprechaun Chase” will be offered March 14, and “Pete the Cat: Big Easter Adventure,” will be offered April 11.

Enrollment in EFMP is not required; however attendance is limited to Active Duty Military, Retirees and DoD employees.

Pre-registration is required to ensure materials are available for all attendees. Please call 533-2330 to register.
